

The team at Mark Haug Construction Inc. prides itself on our 34 years of continued success in General Contracting. MHC is a family owned and operated business based in Pine City, Mn. We are dedicated to our client's and their specific needs with respect to each individual project. Established in 1975 our knowledge and experience has grown to encompass all types of construction.

MHC with its in house work force can effectively General Contract or Construction Manage your project in a variety of ways. We fit our style to your needs. MHC staff with its experienced front office, project managers and job superintendents always keep in close communication with all parties involved to ensure every aspect is covered on every project. Capable manpower, open communication, and efficient scheduling are key items that we bring to each job.